Home Wrecked

Gaglardi Order Too Late

NORTH KAMLOOPS (CP)—Personal intervention of Highways Minister Gaglardi failed to save a home in suburban Brocklehurst yesterday.

Ernest Eastman, his wife and four young children escaped with some of their belongings when flames destroyed the home.

Brocklehurst has no brigade and Eastman was told North Kamloops policy forbids sending equipment outside village boundaries.

So he phoned Mr. Gaglardi at his Kamloops home. The minister phoned the fire department and was told trucks could not go out unless services were paid for.

"Never mind that now," he said, "get out to the fire."

But when the truck got there, the home was beyond saving.

Two Wrecks; Ambulance in Two Mishaps

Eight Hurt on Malahat

Two people are in fair condition at St. Joseph's Hospital, five others are in good or satisfactory condition, and an eighth was treated and discharged following two Sunday accidents on the Malahat.

Most seriously injured were Linda Henley, 17, of 1722 Bay, and Mrs. Mary Thurley, 43, of Alberni.

UPSIDE DOWN

The Henley girl was one of six young people injured about 9 p.m. when the car in which they were riding veered onto the road shoulder, went out of control, swung back across the road to strike a rock wall and then flipped onto its top in the centre of the highway.

In good or satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's are William Champion, 18, of 31 Wellington; Dorothy Leard, 17, of 1502 Gladstone; Jim McMaster, 17, of 1128 Leonard, and Bruce Whitten, 17, of 53 Wellington.

Francis Gilbert, 19, of 1250 Palmer, driver of the car, was treated for minor injuries and discharged.

What police called a freak accident at 7.30 p.m. sent Mrs. Thurley and her husband, Edward Ernest Thurley, to St. Joseph's.

Their small car was being towad north by David Garman, 1045 Vista Heights, when at Niagara Canyon some slack appeared in the tow-rope, which looped around the small car's right front wheel.

TOTAL WRECK

Tightening of the rope flipped the small car out of control and off the highway. It plunged 50 feet down a rocky bank into the canyon and wound up a total wreck.

Mr. Thurley is in good condition.

In the accident involving the young people at Tunnel Hill, police arrived to find the injured strewn about the road.

Miss Henley, still unconscious, and young Whitten were placed on stretchers in the Langford ambulance, and young Champion rode in front with the driver.

The ambulance had reached Caledonia and Douglas when a truck going the same way swung to make a left turn and hit the ambulance, pushing it into a cluster-light pole.

No one in the ambulance was injured in this crash, but the oxygen line feeding Miss Henley was severed and total damage to the ambulance was about $1,000.

On its earlier run to St. Joseph with the Thurleys, the same ambulance, then driven by Fire Chief Rod Bayles, was in another accident.

At Burnside and Douglas, said the chief, one of two cars in the intersection apparently failed to hear the ambulance siren, and was sideswiped by the emergency vehicle.

Anti-Red Holy War Urged on Moslems

CAIRO (UPI)—Moslem leaders yesterday called for a jihad—holy war—against Communism and urged all believers throughout the world to "rise as one man" in the fight.

The demands for a jihad came from Alazhar University, seat of Islam, and the Young Men's Moslem Association, another powerful Moslem centre. They climaxed bitter charges by United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser that Communism is a danger in Arab lands.

(In Baghdad, Iraqi newspapers added a new twist to the war of words with the UAR by denouncing Nasser as "an American imperialist slave."

(In an attack coming from every section of the Iraq press and radio, the Iraqis pelted the Cairo leader with cat-calls of "agent of the West," "plotter-traitor" and "imperialist"—all terms Nasser himself had used during the past four years.)

President Maj.-Gen. Saler Harb said it was the religious duty of every Arab and non-Arab Moslem to "wipe out the evil (of Communism) through jihad for the sake of the fatherland and the preservation of religion." He did not mention Communism by name.
